Nagoya University
Graduate School of International Development

Admission Policy

As detailed in our Mission Statement, the Graduate School of International Development aims to educate researchers and professionals who can contribute to international development cooperation. We equip these researchers and professionals with excellent independent research capabilities and practical work skills.

The Graduate School of International Development seeks the following persons:

1. Those who have a strong desire to conduct empirical research on the development problems that the international community, states, and civil society organizations tackle by using social science theories and methods, and to contribute to policy-making and implementation from a global perspective;
2. Those who have the will to contribute to state- and community-building in cooperation with the international community and with a full understanding of national and local realities;
3. Those who are eager to realize sustainable development and just societies at the global level while establishing a worldwide network of governments, universities, international organizations, private companies, nongovernmental organizations, and individual citizens.

【Important Notice】 Change of application method: Web application

The Graduate School of International Development has initiated a web application system in 2022. In order to apply online, applicants must have access to a PC, printer and e-mail address. An acceptable payment method must be decided upon, and a full facial photograph must be submitted along with all necessary application documents. Applicants must first register at the My Page section of the website before starting application procedures. Applicants should allow ample time for completing application procedures. In addition, important notices regarding entrance examinations shall be sent from the university to your e-mail address. An email address should be prepared that is easy to check on a daily basis, and it should not be changed prior to April 2023.

Note: In this application guideline, all dates and times are in Japan time.

Master's Program Application Guidebook for the Academic Year 2023 (April Enrollment)

Those who want to be admitted to the Mater's Program of the Graduate School of International Development in 2023 must follow the following instructions.

1. Admission Openings

* Those who intend to apply under the above application requirement (9) should contact the GSID Administrative Office by November 11 (Friday), 2022 for eligibility screening.

4. Required Documents

(1) Documents which all applicants must submit

① Application Form and Photograph Card

- Print on A4 size paper in color on one side from the web application system.
- Prepare data file (up to 2MB) of front-facing, upper body, no hat without background taken within 3 months before application and upload it to the web application system.
- A letter of admission will be sent to the postal address entered in the web application system. If you change your address after you apply, be sure to notify the GSID Administrative Office of the change.

② Curriculum Vitae/Resume

Please download the prescribed form from the website below and enter the necessary information.

<https://www4.gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp/en/admission/application/>

③ Official transcripts from your previous school

Official academic transcripts from each school, university, or professional school attended after graduating from high school. Only the original is accepted. Photocopies will not be accepted. If the original is not written in Japanese or English, also submit a translation in either of these languages.

*If the transcripts are sent directly from a school, please make sure that they reach the GSID Administrative Office during the filing period.

④ Certificate of graduation (diploma) or expected graduation

A certificate of graduation (diploma) or expected graduation must be issued by each school you have attended or you are attending. Only the original is accepted. Photocopies will not be accepted. If the original is not written in Japanese or English, also submit a translation in either of these languages.

*If the transcripts are sent directly from a school, please make sure that they reach the GSID Administrative Office during the filing period.

⑤ Statement of purpose

Your statement of purpose should include the reason why you have decided to apply for the Master's Program at GSID. It must be written in Japanese (1,500 characters or less) or in English (600 words or less), on A4 size paper by using Microsoft Word. Send a file made by MS Word and its pdf file by email attachment.

- If you have any research or employment history, and undertaken any internships, or volunteer work etc. related to the research topic you will pursue at GSID, please specify them.
- If the research topic you wish to pursue at GSID differs from your previous academic major, please specify the reason.

*Any statement of purpose that exceeds the set word limit shall be negatively evaluated. Submitted documents shall undergo a plagiarism check.

⑥ Research proposal

Your research proposal must be written in Japanese (4,000 characters or less) or in English (1,600 words or less), on A4 size paper by using Microsoft Word. Send a file made by MS Word and its pdf file by email attachment. Be sure to specify a title for your research proposal. The research proposal must include the following information:

- Research topic and an explanation of its background
- Academic significance in relation to existing literature
- What kind of data and analytical methods you plan to use

*Any research proposal that exceeds the set word limit shall be negatively evaluated. Submitted documents shall undergo a plagiarism check. A bibliographical reference list, and/or bibliographical citations made within footnotes are not counted as a part of the word limit. However, the title and subtitle of the research are counted.

⑦ A photocopy of the official score sheet English proficiency tests indicated in the following table. If the score is less than the minimum required one, you cannot apply.

(3) Optional documents which may be voluntarily submitted

⑩ Letter of recommendation

This must be written and sealed by the applicant's academic advisor from the university s/he attended. A letter from the applicant's present supervisor is also acceptable.

The recommender may send the recommendation letter directly to the GSID Administrative Office by postal mail or by e-mail attachment. In addition, when it is the applicant, not the recommender, who submits the recommendation letter, it must be a paper letter and submitted by postal mail.

⑪ Letter of self-recommendation

⑫ Statement concerning the applicant's previous work and/or research experience

Applicants may submit statement describing their previous work and/or research experience, if you have such experience. The statement must be written or typed in 2,000 characters of Japanese or 800 words of English on a separate sheet of A4 size paper.

⑬ Academic work(s) or work experience related to your research proposal,

⑭ Summary of the academic work(s),

⑮ List of the academic work(s)

Applicants may submit academic papers and/or books written by the applicants in Japanese or English that are related to the research topic specified in the research proposal. A copy of the academic work and a summary in about 3,000 characters of Japanese or in about 1,200 words of English are to be submitted. When submitting published work, please include the cover page of the publication. The applicant must also attach a list of publications which should give bibliographical data including the name of the author(s), the title of the publication, the name of the journal, volume number, the first page and the last page numbers of the publication, and the year of publication. If an item is not published, please indicate that it is "unpublished." If the publication is a chapter of a book, please indicate the name of the editor(s), the title of the book, the title of the chapter, the first and the last page numbers of the chapter, the publisher, and the year of publication. If the item is a book, please indicate the name of the author(s), the title of the book, the number of pages, the publisher, and the year of publication.

⑯ A photocopy of the official score of a Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT)

⑰ MEXT Scholarship Student Certificate

MEXT scholarship students taking an examination from another university must submit the certificate.

5. Application Procedure

(1) Registering through the web application system and payment of examination fee

• The application procedure is completed by submitting the necessary documents by the application deadline after registering the application on the web application system and paying the examination fee.

- The application procedure cannot be completed simply by registering the application and paying the entrance examination fee online.
- Payment deadline of the examination fee is four days from the web application date including the web application date.
- Please note that the payment deadline for registration on the web application system after December 5 (Monday) will be December 8 (Thursday) 12:00 (noon).

(2) Send the documents by registered postal mail and e-mail attachment

The submission method differs depending on the application documents, whether it is by postal mail or by e-mail attachment. The application will be accepted only if the postal mail and e-mail attachments arrive within the application deadline. If either one is delayed, the application will not be accepted.

<Documents that need to be sent by postal mail>

The application documents specified on p.8 shall be posted by registered mail. Print the “Address Sheet” in color from the web application system, attach it to the square No. 2 envelope (size that can accommodate A4), and send it to arrive by the application deadline (Friday, December 9, 16:00).

If you live abroad, please send it by a traceable method such as EMS or DHL.

<Documents that need to be submitted by email attachment>

The application documents that are not sent by postal mail should be sent to gsidexam@adm.nagoya-u.ac.jp as an electronic file (PDF or MS Word file).

*Please refer to p.8 (10. Checklist) for details on whether to send the application documents by postal mail or by attaching them to e-mail.

6. How to Pay the Examination Fee

(1) Examination fee 30,000yen *Handling fee will be charged separately.

MEXT scholarship students do not need to pay the examination fee.

(2) How to Pay

Payment of the examination fee should be made by one of the following methods.

<Available for both residents of Japan and overseas residents>

- Paying by Credit Card

<Available only for residents of Japan>

- Paying by Internet Banking
- Paying at Convenience Stores
- Paying at ATMs with Pay-easy option

(3) Examination Fee Refund Policy

After accepting the application documents, the paid examination fee will not be refunded. However, it may be refunded only in the following cases. The transfer fee for the refund will be deducted. For details, see the attached “Web Application Flow”.

- ① If you do not complete the application procedures after paying the examination fee or if your application is not accepted.
- ② If you pay the examination fee twice.

*The entrance examination fee will be refunded by bank transfer. When returning to an account at a bank outside Japan, the amount returned will be greatly reduced and it will take many days to return. Pay the examination fee very carefully.

7. Selection Process and Dates

(1) Screening of Documents

Screening of applicants will be conducted based on the submitted documents. Each individual applicant will be notified of the results of the screening process via email by January 13 (Friday), 2023.

(2) Connection test: January 19 (Thursday), 2023

Since the oral examination will be conducted online, an online connection test will be conducted in advance. Details will be notified by e-mail after the application is filed. If you do not participate in the preliminary connection test, it will be deemed that you have declined the examination. Participate in the connection test in the same environment using the same device as the oral examination.

(3) Oral Examination: Date: January 26 (Thursday) or 27 (Friday), 2023

Oral examination will be conducted online in Japanese or English.

* How to confirm the latest information in the case of unforeseen circumstances

The examination schedule and selection measures may change due to the spread of infectious diseases or other unforeseen circumstances. Please check the GSID website regularly for the latest information, especially before the application and the examination.

GSID Website: <https://www4.gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp/>

8. Announcement of Examination Results

(1) Date: February 8 (Wednesday), 2023

(2) Notification: Official letter of admission will be sent out only for successful applicants by postal mail after the examinee's numbers of successful applicants are posted on the GSID website. No telephone inquiries will be accepted.

9. Entrance Registration Procedures

Detailed information regarding additional paperwork for admission and entrance registration will be sent in early March.

(1) Registration Deadline: March 15 (Wednesday), 2023 (Subject to change)

1 1 . Special needs applicants who need special care in the examination

(1) Consultation on special care in the examination

Applicants with special needs who require special care in terms of taking exams should consult the GSID Administrative Office, prior to applying for the examination.

(1) Consultation period

Consultations will be accepted until 16:00, November 11(Friday), 2022.

(2) Required documents

Please submit the following documents:

⑱ A request letter for special care during the examination

A request letter for special care on A4 paper, stating the nature of the applicant's special needs and the arrangement desired for examinations (no special format required)

⑲ A doctor's diagnosis

⑳ Other documents

The applicant may submit other documents.

*Please contact the GSID Administrative Office before the application deadline if the applicant with special needs wishes to consult about studies at the university.

(2) Application procedures for the examination

The applicant may submit the application for the entrance examination after the consultation with the GSID Administrative Office. See page 5 for application procedures.

1 2 . Related Information

(1) After applications are filed, changes in submitted documents are not permitted. The examination fee is non-refundable. Submitted documents will not be returned.

(2) Applicant's name, mailing address, and other personal information included in application documents will be used only for the purpose of grading and registering during the entrance examination selection process, announcement of examination results, entrance registration procedures, and student affairs after admission. Personal information will be used appropriately and will not be used for any other purpose.

(3) Regarding the clarification of the scope of control for "deemed exports" under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act ("FEFTA")

As a general rule, the following is unnecessary if the research involves only the humanities and social sciences.

As an exception, if you are involved in a fusion area with a science field, please follow the procedures below. In November 2021, in accordance with the clarification of the scope of control for "deemed exports" under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act ("FEFTA"), some provision of sensitive technology to faculty members and students by universities and research institutions has become subject to control under the FEFTA. Consistently with this change, when applying to study at the University, students will be required to submit a "Declaration of applicable specific categories" based on the “Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories”. In addition, submitting a “Letter of confirmation” may be required at the time of acceptance.

“Declaration of applicable specific categories” & “Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories”
