

THE PHILIPPINE CHAPTER OF the GSID Alumni Association Launch Event

Nagoya University

Established in 1991, the Graduate School of International Development (GSID), Nagoya University is a pioneering and leading graduate school specializing in international development. GSID's alum network comprises 2,376 alums from 100 countries/regions, including 47 Master's and 18 PhD degree alums from the Philippines.

Hybrid

15:00 - 17:10 PST

FEB | 10th | 2024

Meeting Room, The Hertitage Hotel Manila

Participation Fee | FREE of Charge

REGISTRATION

THE PHILIPPINE CHAPTER OF the GSID Alumni Association Launch Event Nagoya University

14:30-

Registration

15:00 - 15:05

Introduction by Ms. Melinda Limlengco

15:05 - 15:10

Congratulatory Remarks by Mr. Masato Noda

15:10 - 15:40

Keynote Address:

"GSID Journey and Its Future Prospect" by Dr. Aya Okada

15:40 - 16:40

Panel Discussion:

"Forging Futures: The Philippine Chapter of the GSID Alumni Association Launch Event - A Panel Discussion on Alumni Collaboration and Sustainable Impact" moderated by Dr. Mario J. Aguja

Panelists:

Dr. Roberto R. Acosta

Dr. Aser B. Javier

Dr. Weena Jade S. Gera

16:40 - 17:10

The Launching of the Philippine Chapter of the GSID Alumni Association and General Assembly moderated by Ms. Mace Solatre

17:30 - 19:30

Dinner

Master of Ceremony: Ms. Melinda Limlengco

Contact: Ms. Jasmin Saricala

0948 898 5888 (Mobile)

jasminsaricala13@gmail.com

SPEAKERS

Ms. Melinda Limlengco

Senior Manager for Strategic Partnerships,
International Rice Research Institute

Mr. Masato Noda

Professor, Ibaraki University & President of the GSID Alumni Association, Nagoya University

Dr. Aya Okada

Dean & Professor, Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya
University

Dr. Mario J. Aguja

Professor, Mindanao State
University-General Santos City

Dr. Roberto R. Acosta

Team Leader, ADB F2C2 Technical Assistance Project

Dr. Aser B. Javier

President & Chief Consultant, Elkhorn
Governance Consulting Co.

Dr. Weena Jade S. Gera

Associate Professor, University of the Philippines Cebu

Ms. Mace Solatre

Supervising Legislative Staff Officer,
Senate of the Philippines