Graduate School of International Development

Admission Policy

As detailed in our Mission Statement, the Graduate School of International Development aims to educate researchers and professionals who can contribute to international development cooperation. We equip these researchers and professionals with excellent independent research capabilities and practical work skills.

The Graduate School of International Development seeks the following persons:

1. Those who possess a high level of English language proficiency, have a basic understanding of their chosen field of specialization, and are able to think logically; those who have a strong desire to conduct empirical research on the development problems that the international community, states, and civil society organizations tackle by using social science theories and methods, and to contribute to policymaking and implementation from a global perspective;

2. Those who have the will to contribute to state- and community-building in cooperation with the international community and with a full understanding of national and local realities;

3. Those who are eager to realize sustainable development and just societies at the global level while establishing a worldwide network of governments, universities, international organizations, private companies, nongovernmental organizations, and individual citizens.

【Important Notice】 Change of application method: Web application

> Applications are submitted through the web application system. In order to apply online, applicants must have access to a PC, printer, and e-mail address. An acceptable payment method must be decided upon, and a full facial photograph must be submitted along with all necessary application documents. Applicants must first register at the My Page section of the website before starting application procedures. Applicants should allow ample time for completing application procedures. In addition, important notices regarding entrance examinations shall be sent from the university to your e-mail address. Therefore, an e-mail address that is easy to check on a daily basis should be prepared, and it should not be changed before April 2025.

Note: In this application guideline, all dates and times are in Japan Standard Time (JST).

Master's Program Application Guidebook for the Academic Year 2025 (April Enrollment)

      ① Application Form and Photograph Card
         ・Print one-sided on A4-size paper in color from the web application system.
         ・Prepare your picture as a data file (up to 2MB) with the following requirements: front-facing, upper body, no hat, facial photo without background, and taken within 3 months before application and upload it to the web application system.
         ・A letter of admission and other documents will be sent to the postal address entered in the web application system. If you change your address after you apply, be sure to notify the GSID Administrative Office of the change.

② Curriculum Vitae/Resume

Please download the prescribed form from the website below and enter the necessary information.

https://www4.gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp/en/admission/application/

③ Official transcripts from your previous school

Official academic transcripts from each school, university, or professional school attended after graduating from high school. Only the original is accepted. Photocopies will not be accepted. If the original is not written in Japanese or English, also submit a translation in either of these languages.

*If the transcripts are sent directly from an educational institute, please make sure that they reach the GSID Administrative Office during the filing period. In the case of digital certificates, they must reach the GSID Administrative Office directly from enrolled school during the filing period.

④ Certificate of graduation (diploma) or expected graduation

A certificate of graduation (diploma) or expected graduation must be issued by each school you have attended or are attending. Only the original is accepted. Photocopies will not be accepted. If the original is not written in Japanese or English, a translation in either of these languages must also be submitted.

*If the certificates are sent directly from an educational institute, please make sure that they reach the GSID Administrative Office during the filing period.
In the case of digital certificates, they must reach the GSID Administrative Office directly from enrolled school during the filing period.

⑤ Statement of purpose

Your statement of purpose should include the reason why you have decided to apply for the Master's Program at GSID. It must be written in Japanese (1,500 characters or less) or in English (600 words or less), by using the designated form. Send an MS Word file and a PDF copy by e-mail attachment.

・If you have any research or employment history, undertaken any internships or volunteer work, or any other activities related to the research topic you will pursue at GSID, please specify them.
・If the research topic you wish to pursue at GSID differs from your previous academic major, please specify the reason.

*Any statement of purpose that exceeds the set word limit shall be negatively evaluated. Submitted documents shall undergo a plagiarism check.
* Applicants should not use generative AI tools to generate text or any other content in their application documents.

⑥ Research proposal

Your research proposal must be written in Japanese (4,000 characters or less) or in English (1,600 words or less), by using the designated form. Send an MS Word file and a PDF copy by e-mail attachment. Be sure to specify a title for your research proposal. The research proposal must include the following information:

・Research topic and an explanation of its background

・Academic significance in relation to existing literature

・What kind of data and analytical methods you plan to use

*Any research proposal that exceeds the set word limit shall be negatively evaluated. Submitted documents shall undergo a plagiarism check. A bibliographical reference list, and/or bibliographical citations made within footnotes are not counted as part of the word limit.

* Applicants should not use generative AI tools to generate text or any other content in their application documents.

⑦ A photocopy of the official score sheet for English proficiency tests is in the following table. Those with a score less than the minimum required, are not eligible to apply.

<Types of English proficiency tests to be accepted and the minimum required score>

・Scores of any tests other than those noted above shall not be accepted.

・TOEIC scores will not be accepted.

・Scores will only be accepted from tests taken within five years from the date of the first day of the application period.

・A copy of the official score of any of the above accepted English proficiency tests MUST be submitted in order to qualify to sit for the entrance examination. NO exceptions shall be allowed under any circumstances, including for the following reasons: "it was too difficult to rearrange to take the test," "English is my mother tongue," or "English was the language of instruction where I received my latest degree."

(2) Documents to be submitted by those who are not Japanese nationals

⑧ A photocopy of your passport

Applicants without Japanese nationality must submit a valid passport photocopy of the page showing the passport number and the applicant's photograph.

⑨　A photocopy of your residence card

Applicants who are currently residing in Japan must also submit a photocopy of their residence card (both sides).

(3) Optional documents which may be voluntarily submitted

⑩　Letter of recommendation

This must be written and sealed by the applicant's academic advisor from the university s/he has attended. A letter from the applicant's present supervisor is also acceptable.

The recommender may send the recommendation letter directly to the GSID Administrative Office by postal mail or by e-mail attachment. In addition, when it is the applicant, not the recommender, who submits the recommendation letter, it must be a paper letter with a seal, enclosed and submitted by postal mail.

⑪　Letter of self-recommendation

⑫　Statement concerning the applicant's previous work and/or research experience

Applicants may submit a statement describing their previous work and/or research experience, if applicable. The statement must be written or typed in 2,000 characters of Japanese or 800 words of English on a separate sheet of A4-size paper.

⑬　Academic work(s) or work experience related to your research proposal
⑭　Summary of the academic work(s)
⑮　List of the academic work(s)

Applicants may submit academic papers and/or books written by the applicants in Japanese or English that are related to the research topic specified in the research proposal. A copy of the academic work and a summary in about 3,000 characters of Japanese or in about 1,200 words of English are to be submitted. When submitting published work, please include the cover page of the publication. The applicant must also attach a list of publications with bibliographical data including the name of the author(s), the title of the publication, the name of the journal, the volume number, the publication's first and last page numbers of the publication, and the year of publication. If an item is not published, please indicate that it is "unpublished." If the publication is a chapter of a book, please indicate the name of the editor(s), the title of the book, the title of the chapter, the chapter's first and last page numbers, the publisher, and the year of publication. If the item is a book, please indicate the name of the author(s), the title of the book, the number of pages, the publisher, and the year of publication.

⑯　A photocopy of the official score of a Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT)

⑰　MEXT Scholarship Student Certificate

MEXT scholarship students taking an examination from another university must submit the certificate.

５．Application Procedure

(1) Registering through the web application system and payment of the examination fee

・ The application procedure is completed by submitting the necessary documents by the application deadline after registering the application on the web application system and paying the examination fee.

・ The application procedure cannot be completed only by registering the application online and paying the entrance examination fee.

・ Payment is due within 4 days including the date of application. However, if the Web application deadline falls earlier than that, the payment deadline will be the Web application deadline.

・ Please note that the payment deadline for registration on the web application system after July 29 (Monday) will be August 1 (Thursday) 12:00 (noon).

(2) Send the documents by registered postal mail and e-mail attachment

The submission method (postal mail or e-mail attachment) differs depending on the application documents. The application will be accepted only if the postal mail and e-mail attachments arrive within the application deadline. If either one is delayed, the application will not be accepted.

<Documents to be sent by postal mail>

The application documents specified on p.9 shall be posted by registered mail. Print the "Address Sheet" in color from the web application system, attach it to a square-shaped No. 2 envelope (the size that can accommodate A4), and send it to arrive by the application deadline (Friday, August 2, 16:00).

If you live abroad, please send it by a traceable method such as EMS or DHL.

<Documents that need to be submitted by e-mail attachment>

The application documents that are not sent by postal mail should be sent to gsidexam@t.mail.nagoya-u.ac.jp as an electronic file (PDF or MS Word file).

*Please refer to p.9 (10. Checklist) for details on whether to send the application documents by postal mail or by e-mail as attachments.

* The status of the application can be checked through the web application system.

* Check your e-mail settings to ensure that you can receive e-mails from gsidexam@t.mail.nagoya-u.ac.jp as the GSID Administrative office will send an e-mail if there are any problems with the application.

* Applicants should not use generative AI tools to generate text or any other content in their application documents.

６．How to Pay the Examination Fee

(1) The examination fee is 30,000yen *Handling fee will be charged separately.

Those who intend to enroll as MEXT scholarship student do not need to pay the examination fee.

(2) How to Pay

Payment of the examination fee should be made by one of the following methods:

<Available for both residents of Japan and overseas residents>

・Paying by credit card
<Available only for residents of Japan>
　・Paying by internet banking
　・Paying at convenience stores
　・Paying at ATMs with Pay-easy option

(3) Examination Fee Refund Policy

After accepting the application documents, the paid examination fee will not be refunded. However, it may be refunded only in the following cases. The transfer fee for the refund will be deducted. For details, see the attached "Web Application Flow".

① If you do not complete the application procedures after paying the examination fee or if your application is not accepted.

② If you pay the examination fee twice.

*The entrance examination fee will be refunded by bank transfer. When refunding to an account at a bank outside Japan, the amount returned will be greatly reduced and it will take many days to arrive. Please be cognizant of this before you pay the examination fee.

7．Selection Process and Dates

(1) Screening of Documents

The screening of applicants will be conducted based on the submitted documents. Each individual applicant will be notified of the results of the screening process via e-mail by August 30 (Friday), 2024.

(2) Connectivity test

Those who wish to take an online connectivity test due to concerns about your online connection during the screening or other procedures, should notify GSID Administrative office at the time of application. The connectivity test will be conducted at the following date and time. Completion of the connectivity test does not guarantee remedies in the event of a problem on the day of the examination.

① Date and time: September 4 (Wednesday), 2024, 10:00

② Language: Japanese or English

③ Method: Details will be provided by e-mail to applicants who have sent a notification, after the application is filed.

(3) Oral Examination

Date: Your designated examination time will be on either September 11 (Wednesday) or 12 (Thursday), 2024

The oral examination will be conducted online in Japanese or English. Notice of your designated date and time will be sent to you individually by e-mail after September 5 (Thursday). To prevent any misconduct, you must ensure that there are no other people present in the room you are using during the examination. Please note that you will be asked to show all the sides of your room via camera to verify that no one else is present. Also, the use of a virtual or blurred background is prohibited.

* How to confirm the latest information in the case of unforeseen circumstances:
The examination schedule and selection procedures may change due to the spread of infectious diseases or other unforeseen circumstances. Please check the GSID website regularly for the latest information, especially before application and the examination.

  GSID Website: https://www4.gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp/

８．Announcement of Examination Results
(1) Date: September 18 (Wednesday), 2024
(2) Notification: Official letter of admission will be sent out only to successful applicants by postal mail after the examinee numbers of successful applicants are posted on the GSID website. No telephone inquiries will be accepted.

９．Entrance Registration Procedures
 Detailed information regarding additional paperwork for admission and entrance registration will be sent in early March.
(1) Registration Deadline: Middle of March, 2025
(2) Required Fees:
  ① Entrance Fee: 282,000 yen
  ② Tuition Fee for 6 months (April 2025－September 2025): 267,900 yen (535,800 yen per year)
  ③Accident and Liability Insurance Premiums for 2 years: 1,750yen～18,750yen
   (Details will be provided at the entrance registration procedures.)

* Those who have already enrolled in other universities are, in principle, unable to enroll in GSID. However, under certain circumstances, there may be exceptions. Please contact the GSID Administrative Office before undertaking entrance registration procedures.
* Please note that if the fees change before your entrance to the university or during your stay at Nagoya University, you will need to pay the revised fees.
* Among successful candidates, jobholders will be asked to submit a letter of approval issued by an immediate manager or a self-consent letter to accept the studentship at GSID. No format is provided.

 (2) Application procedures for the examination
   The applicant may submit the application for the entrance examination after consulting with the GSID Administrative Office. See page 5 for application procedures.

１２. Related Information
 (1) After applications are filed, changes in submitted documents are not permitted. The examination fee is non-refundable. Submitted documents will not be returned.
 (2) Applicant's name, mailing address, and other personal information included in application documents will be used only for the purposes of grading and registering during the entrance examination selection process, announcement of examination results, entrance registration procedures, and student affairs after admission. Personal information will be used appropriately and will not be used for any other purpose.
 (3) Regarding the clarification of the scope of control for "deemed exports" under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act ("FEFTA")
   As a general rule, the following is unnecessary if the research involves only the humanities and social sciences.
   As an exception, if you are involved in a fusion area with a science field, please follow the procedures below. In November 2021, in accordance with the clarification of the scope of control for "deemed exports" under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act ("FEFTA"), some provision of sensitive technology to faculty members and students by universities and research institutions has become subject to control under the FEFTA. Consistently with this change, when applying to study at the University, students will be required to submit a "Declaration of applicable specific categories" based on the "Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories". In addition, submitting a "Letter of confirmation" may be required at the time of acceptance.

"Declaration of applicable specific categories" & "Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories"
