Nagoya University
Graduate School of International Development
Special Program for Global Business Professionals

Admission Policy

The Special Program for Global Business Professionals is intended for a small number of early- and mid-career business professionals and government officials. It aims to educate global business professionals who have holistic perspectives on business operations in developing and emerging countries by helping them to acquire knowledge and communication skills, as well as to construct human networks that are beneficial for such business operations. This program provides early- and mid-career business professionals with graduate-level education covering various fields of studies, including the political, socioeconomic and legal frameworks of developing countries, human resources and industry development, and international law concerning multinational corporations.

In light of the above aims, this program seeks candidates with a basic foundation in a specific field of international development cooperation who meet the following criteria:

- (1) Business professionals who engage or are expected to engage in business operations in developing and emerging countries, or government officials who are engaged or expected to be engaged in matters concerning international development or international cooperation as well as public-private partnerships, including cooperation with business and private sectors; and
- (2) Persons who have work experience of more than three years.

【Important Notice】 Change of application method: Web application

The Graduate School of International Development has initiated a web application system in 2022. In order to apply online, applicants must have access to a PC, printer and e-mail address. An acceptable payment method must be decided upon, and a full facial photograph must be submitted along with all necessary application documents. Applicants must first register at the My Page section of the website before starting application procedures. Applicants should allow ample time for completing application procedures. In addition, important notices regarding entrance examinations shall be sent from the university to your e-mail address. Therefore, an email address that is easy to check on a daily basis should be prepared, and it should not be changed before April 2025.

Note: In this application guideline, all dates and times are in Japan Standard Time.

Personal information will be used appropriately and will not be used for any other purpose.
- (4) Regarding the clarification of the scope of control for "deemed exports" under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act ("FEFTA")

As a general rule, the following is unnecessary if the research involves only the humanities and social sciences.

As an exception, if you are involved in a fusion area with a science field, please follow the procedures below. In November 2021, in accordance with the clarification of the scope of control for "deemed exports" under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act ("FEFTA"), some provision of sensitive technology to faculty members and students by universities and research institutions has become subject to control under the FEFTA. Consistently with this change, when applying to study at the University, students will be required to submit a "Declaration of applicable specific categories" based on the "Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories". In addition, submitting a "Letter of confirmation" may be required at the time of acceptance.

"Declaration of applicable specific categories" & "Flowchart for determining applicable specific categories"
