

Check Sheet for the Completion of the MEXT Special Doctoral Program for Private Sector Development to Achieve Sustainable Economic Growth in Asia

Student ID: _____

Name: _____

The completion of this program requires the acquisition of the following credits in addition to six credits of the Ph.D. Dissertation Research (I-III) required for all doctoral students.

Subject Category	Registration	Credit Earning	Check if exempted	Subject Title	Credit	Required/ Required Elective	Credits required for completion
Basic Subjects	y m	y m		Japan's Development Experience	2	Required	2
	y m	y m		Lecture on International Development B (Strategy in Global Business)	2	Required Elective	2
	y m	y m		Lecture on International Development B (Global Business Affairs)	2	Required Elective
Advanced Subjects*	y m	y m		International Field Research to Identify Problems A	1	Required Elective	3
	y m	y m		International Field Research to Identify Problems B	2
	y m	y m		International Internship A	1
	y m	y m		International Internship B	2
							7

*Notes for Advanced Subjects:

- i) "International Field Research to Identify Problems A" and "International Internship A" (one credit each) require the minimum of 22.5 hours of research, fieldwork, or internship activities. If these activities include report-writing, the required minimum would be 30 hours. "International Field Research to Identify Problems B" and "International Internship B" (two credits each) require the minimum of 45 hours of the same activities as in "A". If the activities include report-writing, the required minimum would be 60 hours.
- ii) You must submit a fieldwork/internship plan to your academic advisor, get his/her seal or signature, and submit it to the GSID Office.
- iii) Please ask the GSID Admin Office for more information on how to register for these subjects.

Remarks made by the academic advisor

Confirmation by the academic advisor on the registration of subjects (seal or signature)

	D1	D2	D3
First semester
Second semester

Confirmation by the Department Chair

Completion