

Submission of a Master's Thesis in the 2024 Academic Year

Students who intend to earn a Master's degree either in September 2024 or in March 2025 are required to submit a master's thesis. Follow the timeline and instructions below:

For more details and forms, refer to the website of GSID
<https://www4.gsid.nagoya-u.ac.jp/currentstudents/en/education/master>

1. Submission deadline:

September graduation, 2024: Friday, July 5, 2024, 16:00

March graduation, 2025: Friday, January 10, 2025, 16:00

*The thesis in pdf format must be uploaded onto the designated folder in TACT.

Submissions intended for graduation in September 2024 or March 2025 will not be accepted after their respective deadlines.

Should you be unable to upload the thesis onto TACT for some technical reasons of TACT, you must send it to the GSID Office by email before the deadline.

2. Thesis and other documents to be submitted:

Master's thesis

Summary of the thesis: either 1,600 English words or 4,000 Japanese characters, approximately

Confirmation Form for Plagiarism Check (designated form)

Checklist for Master's Thesis Submission (designated form)

3. Languages used in the main text: Japanese or English

4. Layout and format: Refer to the GSID website.

5. Oral examination:

September graduation, 2024: Friday, July 19, 2024

March graduation, 2025: Thursday, January 30, 2025

*In the oral examination, students are only allowed to refer to the Master's thesis and summary of the thesis.

6. Submission of the electronic file:

After your Master's thesis is approved by the faculty council, you are required to submit a PDF file of your Master's thesis (you can correct small errors such as typos, if any) to TACT by a deadline. Details will be announced.